PUBLIC HEARINGS

a. Application for Rezoning RZ#09-03 submitted by Habitat for Humanity.

Mayor Mofield opened the public hearing on Application for Rezoning RZ#09-03 submitted by Habitat for Humanity.

Planning Director Liles stated the request is to rezone two parcels of land from R-20 Residential to R-15 Residential Zoning. She stated the property is not located in a watershed area or floodplain. She stated the difference is 20,000 square feet for R-20 zoning and 15,000 square feet for R-15 zoning. Planning Director Liles stated the minimum required living area would be 1400 square feet in R-20 and 1200 square feet in R-15 zoning. Planning Director Liles displayed a map to show the boundaries of the property. Planning Director Liles stated in considering a rezoning, the Board must consider several factors. She stated it should be based on compatibility of adjacent lots. Planning Director Liles stated the area is predominantly residential and surrounding properties are residential as well. Planning Director Liles read a list of questions the Board must consider before voting on this item. Planning Director Liles stated the Planning Board recommended approval of this item and found it consistent with the 2030 Land Development Plan.

Maurice Holland, Jr. thanked the Board for their time. He stated he was there in support of the rezoning. He stated he is part of the family selection committee for Habitat for Humanity and a lifelong resident of the Midway Community. He stated he feels this would be an improvement to the area and sees this as a goal for local residents to strive for home ownership. Mr. Holland stated possible Habitat homeowners must have decent credit in order to be considered and a willingness to partner – sweat equity. Mr. Holland stated each adult in the household has to commit to put in an equivalent of 3.5 months of work on their house or another family's house before they move forward with the process.

Elizabeth Cox, Executive Director for Habitat for Humanity, stated she was there to answer any questions. Elizabeth Cox stated she believes the development planned will be beautiful and values of properties in Midway and on Bronwyn Street will remain the same, if not possibly increase. Mayor Mofield asked how much retail value of the homes would be. Elizabeth Cox guessed the retail values of the homes would be between $95,000 - $115,000.

Steve Guyton, 150 Bronwyn Street, Superintendent for Stafford Land Company, stated he is not opposed to new projects and new homes going up. Steve Guyton stated he is opposed to the rezoning for smaller homes clustered together – he feels it will bring down home values on Bronwyn Street. He stated there will be increased traffic at the intersection of US 1 and Saunders. Steve Guyton stated the zoning for R-20 was in place when the property was bought, and he doesn't think the zoning should be changed for this development.

Karen Vaccaro, 175 Bronwyn Street, stated her backyard adjoins this proposed development. She stated she would like the development placed farther back from her property so that it does not decrease her property value. Karen Vaccaro stated she asked Elizabeth Cox if she understood the rezoning that would have to take place to build the development. Karen Vaccaro stated she asked Habitat for a greater buffer zone. She was concerned about her home value decreasing dramatically from the placement of the Habitat homes. Karen Vaccaro asked that homes be placed closer to the road and farther from her backyard. Karen Vaccaro stated this situation could create a negative environment within her neighborhood. She stated she would really like to have a privacy fence built if these homes go in.

Planning Director Liles clarified the rear setback minimum would be 30 feet. Karen Vaccaro stated she is referring to buffer zones. She stated she is referring to yard to yard.

Angelo Vaccaro, 175 Bronwyn Street, stated he doesn't understand why Habitat would buy the property on R-20 zoning when they knew they were going to try to rezone the property to build smaller homes. Angelo Vaccaro stated right now all homeowners get along great in the area. He stated the impact for the Midway Community is much less severe because the Midway houses are much farther away. Angelo Vaccaro stated plans were never drawn up for the R-20 zoning - Habitat just assumed they could have the property rezoned.

Maurice Holland, Sr. stated this whole issue came about when NCDOT was selling the property. He stated the plan was to revitalize the community and grow it in a positive way. He stated they are looking for affordable, family homes for working people. He stated he networked with Civil Rights and Habitat for Humanity to work on this project. Maurice Holland, Sr. stated when Bonnie Brook was built with $350,000 homes his property taxes increased. Mayor Mofield asked Mr. Holland to clarify how Habitat could have assumed the rezoning could take place. Maurice Holland, Sr. stated there was a time factor in order to purchase the property before the deadline and there was not time to go before the Planning Board during the short timeframe.

Alan Staggard, architect for Habitat, stated he worked for the past 6 months on designs for Habitat houses. He stated the new designs would greatly improve the appearance of the proposed habitat development. He stated the lot sizes would be approximately 1/3 acre each. He stated each tree will be looked at on the property so that as many trees as possible can be saved. Mayor Mofield asked if more of a buffer could be provided or a privacy fence. Alan Staggard stated probably a little more buffer zone could be provided. Mayor Mofield asked if more plantings could be done to provide more of a natural buffer. Mayor Mofield asked Planning Director Liles if it was possible for the Board to require a privacy fence or additional buffer for this development. Planning Director Liles stated at this point in the process, the Town has no control over conditions, only rezoning.

Kenny & Stephanie Burge, 165 Bronwyn Street, stated they think the privacy fence would be a good idea. Kenny Burge stated he doesn't like the idea of the subject area being referred to as a dump. Stephanie Burge stated she would really like a privacy fence and then they wouldn't be quite as against the development.

Maurice Holland, Sr. spoke again – he stated he and Habitat had met with other property owners in the area to try to iron out all differences. He wants to unite the two communities. Maurice Holland, Sr. stated this development would be a wonderful way to ease the housing issue for working families.

Mark Dorosin, Attorney for UNC Center for Civil Rights, stated first Midway worked with Aberdeen to get funding for water and sewer, then annexation, now this Habitat development is the next step to connect Midway to other communities in Aberdeen. He stated the Planning Board recommended this rezoning unanimously. He stated Habitat compromised with the Town on the rezoning from R-10 to R-15.

Carolyn Haas, 220 Stephanie Street, stated she lives in the Bronwyn Community. Carolyn Haas stated she thinks it would be nice to keep with the R-20 zoning and she can see where the surrounding property owners are coming from.

Jane Cole, 120 Timothy Street, stated her property faces Timothy Street. Jane Cole stated she has lived in her home for 22 years and has never had problems in the area before. Jane Cole stated the property was purchased with R-20 zoning, which was to protect property values of surrounding properties. She stated she believes Habitat for Humanity should develop the property as R-20, which was the zoning for the property when Habitat bought it.

Peter Johnston, 155 Bronwyn Street, stated this project gives him a bad taste in his mouth. Peter Johnston stated he had just retired after working for 34 years. He believes the property was bought at R-20 and that's the zoning the property should be developed at.

Elizabeth Cox stated the property was bought at an auction, and Habitat for Humanity had been asked by the Midway Community to consider purchasing the property. Elizabeth Cox stated there could have been an additional 20 people here tonight from Midway in support of the project. Elizabeth Cox stated she was led to believe the community supported this development when the property was purchased. She believes the fence will put up a wall between the communities. Elizabeth Cox provided written proof to the Board that habitat properties increase in value, rather than decrease.

Mayor Mofield thanked everyone for their comments. Mayor Mofield requested Board members to consider all comments heard during the public hearing.

With no further comments, Mayor Mofield closed the public hearing on Application for Rezoning RZ#09-03 submitted by Habitat for Humanity.

- b. Town's Intent to submit applications for Community Development Block Grant funds.

Mayor Mofield opened the public hearing for the Town's Intent to submit applications for Community Development Block Grant funds.

Planning Director Liles stated this public hearing is the first step in a two part process to possibly apply for Community Development Block Grant funds. Planning Director Liles stated funding is not there at this time but it is still a good opportunity for the Town and a good way to position ourselves for possible opportunities.
